Tributes

A Tribute to my Beloved Mum

Mary Wakonyo was more than a mother. She was the pillar of our family. Raising 5 men was no easy fate but somehow you managed, behind the silent strength behind every milestone we achieved. You were always there. Her warmth, wisdom and unwavering faith carried us through life's storms. She lived with grace, served with humility and loved without condition. Her laughter lit up every room and her words comforted even the deepest wounds. To us she was a source of endless love, resilience and quiet courage. Her legacy lives on in the values she instilled in us, and the kindness she showed to everyone who crossed her path. We will miss her dearly but we find peace in knowing her spirit will always be with us.

Rest well, Mum. You ran your race with honor and love. Your memory will forever remain in our hearts.

A Tribute to our dear Shushu

Shosh, I will miss you so much. I really thank God for the time He gave you to us. We have learned a lot from you. Your advice and stories will be missed. Shosho you had a sense of humor that no one else has in this family. It was quite enjoyable to be in your space. It was never boring. I will miss you and will thank God for the time He has given us you. We consider our self lucky.

I remember your question, whoever I came over to see you via uber you always commented that this generation is too soft. I will dearly miss you and your sense of humor.

Shosho you taught us love and the value of self respect as an individual. We cannot believe that you have rested and until we meet again. May you rest in Peace.

From Morgan, Giselle, Nicole, Affia, Tillan, Kiruri, Jason and Jaylan.

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:
a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance.
